

Reaching Out to Non-native English Speakers in Your Community

Laurie Martin
Adult Learning Resource Center
lmartin@cntrmail.org
224-366-8631

Connect with

- Religious institutions and leaders
- Immigrant leaders
 - Bilingual newspapers
 - Business groups
 - Community government
 - Social service agencies
 - Educators
 - Healthcare professionals

Simplify Communication

- Translations
- Website language
- Signage in library
- Bilingual staff or volunteers
- Phone & email
- Videos in other languages

Simplify print language

Are you looking for help with computer-based Literacy learning, completing forms, or Citizenship study assistance, free of charge?
 The Literacy Librarian can give you customized 1:1 assistance to fit your needs.
 Simply fill in this form and we will contact you to arrange a mutually agreeable time.

Book discussions are an excellent way for ESL students to acquire new comprehension and analysis skills in English. Discussions are led by a moderator who will guide you using questions and prompts.

Digital Literacy is harder in a new language!

Using the computer is ruff!
 It makes me want to byte someone!

Market where immigrants will see and hear your information

